THE 1951

LATIPAC

Foreword

To give you a picture of our high school life, we present the 1951 LATIPAC. At the beginning of the book you found the first picture of Broughton from the air. Besides the usual pictures of faculty and students, we have tried to get informal "shots" of the clubs and the activities that are typical of our school life. Some of these are found in the athletic section; others are in the feature section or in the Story of the Year. At the back of the book are the advertisements, without which this book would not be possible.

Dedication

MR. JOHN PEATROSS

We, the senior class of 1951, dedicate this record of our high school memories to a friend.

"A poet once this sentence penned:
"The one is rich who has a friend!"
We read it and we thought: 'How true!
He must have had a friend like You'!"

To Mr. John Peatross we dedicate this 1951 LATIPAC.

Senior Class of '51

As Seniors we stand between the old and new. Now we look back over our high school days and also take a glimpse into the future.

We must say good-bye to our teachers, to our school, and to our friends. You have meant more to us than we are capable of saying, and our days here will hold a special place in our memories.

Next year many of us will be going to college; others will find jobs or enter the service; some will marry and start homes. Wherever we may be, we wish to live in such a way that Broughton will always be proud of us.

ANN STEPHENSON,
Senior Class Secretary,

Senior Song

TO THE TUNE OF "TOO YOUNG"

The time has come to say good-bye
To all of you and Broughton High.
The memories will last
With all our Senior Class
But now our hearts are sad, the time is nigh
We hate to leave you all, you know;
Our love will last though years may go.
Those years, we always will recall
That these days were best of all.

JEAN SPIVEY.

Alma Mater

Alma Mater, we salute thee,
Bounteous giver hear our praise
For within thy walls we've garnered
Gifts enriching all our days;
Opportunity for friendship,
Guidance in our quest for truth
Faith through all our grave endeavor,
Understanding love of youth.
These our gifts, O Alma Mater,
We shall cherish through the days,
Striving still through high endeavor
Thus to render thee our praise.

Sub-Freshman Class

We entered Needham Broughton in September 1950; pretty wise and old, we thought, until we started mingling with the upper classmen and found that we had much to learn.

Our first class activity was an Eighth Grade Social held at the start of the year. This was primarily a get acquainted affair which served the purpose very well.

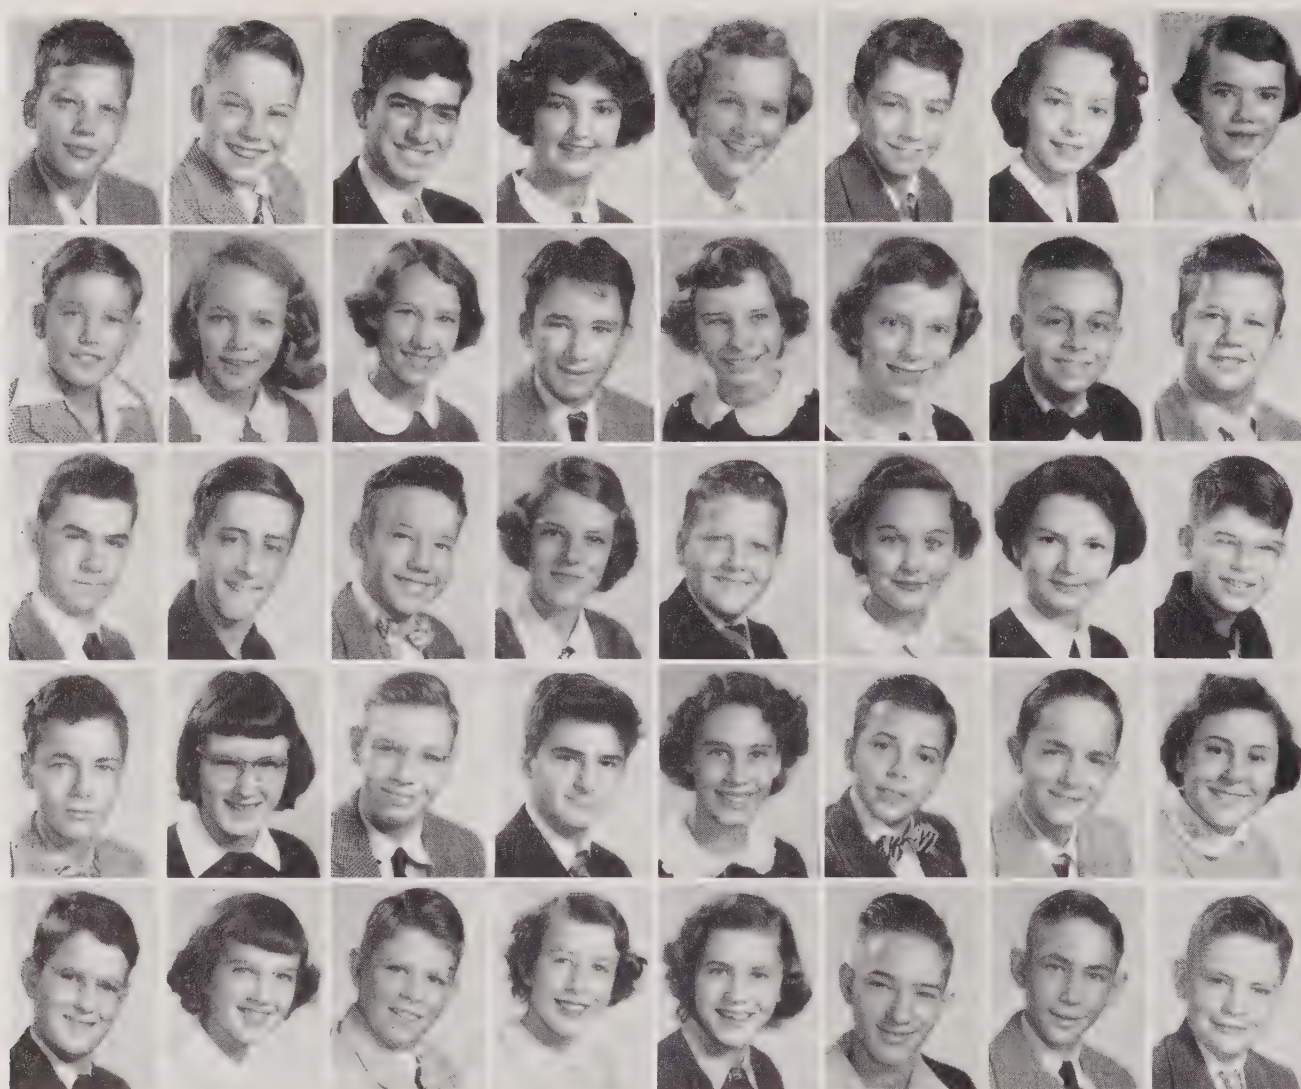

We elected class officers in November. The officers were Betsy Purcell, president; Mary Lynn Moody, secretary; Faye Arnold, treasurer; and Richard Ray, sergeant-at-arms. Mrs. Banks was appointed our class adviser.

At our first class meeting we settled the matters of dues for our class dance. The dance, scheduled for April and held in the gymnasium was a big success. Also we selected as a class project, a clean up campaign in the cafeteria. This project has been successfully completed.

Our first year has been a very happy one.

The Student Council began preparing for this year 1950-51 in the spring of 1950 with the election of officers. Skipper MacMillan was elected president of the Council on the nominations and the following officers were elected in the run-offs: Bobby Gaddy, vice-president; Karen Jensen, secretary; and Karl Barkley, sergeant-at-arms. George Pressley was selected by a faculty committee to be the treasurer of the council and manager of the school store combined. Soon after the elections, these officers along with the committee appointees were installed with each member of the executive council of the previous year summarizing his duty and introducing his successor.

The Council began its work long before school officially opened in September, by holding executive council meetings to map out plans for the coming year. Also it greeted the students and teachers that first day of school with greeting cards made by the hospitality committee of the council.

By the last of September, the council was in full swing and playing host to all the new students of Broughton. During the fall months, two parties were held, one for the new students and one for the eighth grade.

Several minor projects for the year were the selling of Hi-Times folders and the selling of flowers at the homecoming game. In January a Student-Faculty basketball game was sponsored by the council.

The many festivities of our homecoming were made possible for us by the Student Council along with the gala Christmas dance given.

In order to pep up the holiday spirit of the students and also improve the home-room interiors the House and Grounds Committee sponsored a Decorating and Clean Up campaign.

As one of the major projects of the year, the Constitution of the past years which had become outdated, was rewritten. Four new committees, hospitality, school-store, lost and found, and student co-operative, were added to the Constitution. Many other necessary items were also written into the Constitution.

Once every four years a student handbook is published by the council. This year being the fourth year, the council proceeded with the publishing of another handbook. All activities and courses concerning the school were written into the book.

We played hosts to the Central District of the North Carolina Student Council Congress in the spring of the year. Representatives from all of the Student councils in this district came to Raleigh for their annual meeting.

The council sponsors many things during the year that the students do not recognize. Such things are our student telephone, the school store, and all paid chapel programs. The student council pays and supervises all of these projects along the planning of all of the chapel programs, the reporting of news to our local newspaper, the returning to you of all lost articles, the chartering of buses to our athletic contests, and many other daily things that you take for granted. The council is an essential of everyday life at Broughton for without it many of the pleasures and needs it gives us would be lost.

In order to give recognition to students who have rendered outstanding service to the school through Student Council work, publications, sports, and office work, the service club was organized. The club is sponsored by the student council. A student can be nominated by a fellow-student or a member of the faculty. Each candidate is discussed and voted on by the members of this committee, and all candidates must receive the unanimous vote of the members in order to be included.

The service club has two induction ceremonies, one in the fall for seniors, and one in the spring for juniors. The names of the new members are kept secret until the program. The effect of a large book is given by large cards with a new member's name on each card. As a person sees his name, he comes to the stage. A summary of the new member's service is given. The membership can never exceed 25.

This year the Glee Club was under the direction of Leon B. Fleming. It sang at various times during the school year. Their performances included a radio program in accordance with National Education Week and a program of sacred Christmas music for both the Parent Teacher Association and the student body. The Glee Club's programs are performed by students selected from its one hundred and seventy-five members.

At the Christmas program the Glee Club presented its first octette; solos were sung by Jean Spivey and Glenn Anderson.

The art department assisted by preparing the stage set, a stain glass window, and the covers for the programs.

A select chorus from the Broughton Glee Club gave its performances at the District Music Contest on March 14, at Meredith College. A part of the select group who attended this District Contest also attended the Music Spring Festival at Greensboro on April 11 and 12. A select group of eighty voices presented a spring concert in April in the Broughton Auditorium. This was the final appearance of choral groups from the Music department.

Latipac Staff

With the election of Jo Duncan as editor and Holt Fleming as business manager and the appointment of Peggy Smith as advertising manager, the work on the 1950-51 LATIPAC began. Following these selections, the supporting staff was chosen. Bess Peeler, Melissa Morse, and Joyce Sparger served as senior, junior, and sophomore class editors respectively. Bill Lee handled the jokes while Ted Brown and Nannette Starling edited the enlarged sports section. This year we found it possible to lengthen the feature section which Sarah Lawrence managed. Reynolds Price wrote the "Senior Story," and Shirley Habel was faculty editor. In putting out an annual, there are many behind-the-scene jobs which one might forget; but the success or failure of these activities many times determines the success or failure of the annual. The staff wishes to express its appreciation to the members of the journalism and typing classes and also to the faculty members who did so much to make the publication of our LATIPAC possible.

Waller and Smith Studio took the seniors' individual pictures, and Delmar Studios of Charlotte took those of the other classes. Leonard Kamsler, again this year, took many of the other pictures.

From the opening of school, Peggy Smith and her advertising staff began the hard work of getting ads from various business firms of the city. Much of this work was done by the students from the journalism classes.

At the December meeting the seniors decided to dedicate the LATIPAC to Mr. Jack Peatross.

The hours spent on copy-writing, articles, taking photographs, and collecting were profitable ones not only because they made the printing of the LATIPAC possible but also because they gave us all an opportunity to work together in a proj-

Miss Laura Helen Paschal was faculty adviser.

Hi-Times Staff

With Reynolds Price as editor-in-chief and Laura Helen Paschal as adviser, the Hi-Times went to press at Edwards & Broughton for eight regular issues. It was evident from the first edition that the style and policy of the six-page monthly were being radically revised. All editorial space was devoted to a consistent plea for the acceptance of mature attitudes and actions on the part of the students and faculty toward such things as the football team, conduct, the Christmas season, the race problem, and the election of student council officers.

Changes in format included the use of larger pictures — the Christmas issue carried the largest picture in Hi-Times history, a 6¾ x 10 Madonna and child. A number of headline types gave variety to the pages, and a new type face was adopted that allowed for greater content.

Melissa Morse and Bess Peeler, feature editors, attempted to present a cross section of the humor, fashions, and the creative efforts of Broughton students.

The sports staff, headed by Billy Churn, Tommy Dunlap, and George Pressly reviewed and previewed the athletic events, naming each month one outstanding athlete as "Cap of the Month." The regular sports column, "Sport Spotlight," was written by George Pressly and David Terry.

Members of a large staff included Pat Dowell, managing editor; Mary Lib Duke, business manager; and Martha Barber, advertising manager. Jennie Sharp's typing classes typed all copy. Leonard Kamsler provided the majority of photographs used in the paper.

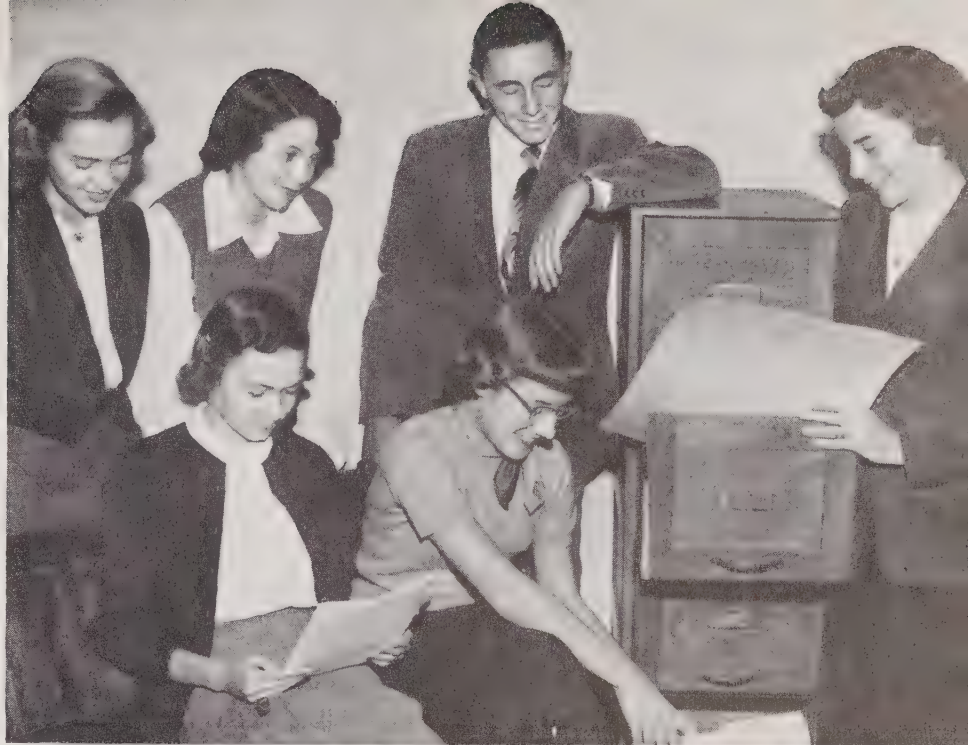

With the publication of the Senior issue on May 25, the Hi-Times completed its work for the year! It was the hope of the staff that they had raised the standards of the paper to a new height, that they had reflected clearly the varied and highly-colored Broughton life.

The Audio-Visual Club was faced with the biggest schedule it had ever had. Therefore, Mr. Mitchell was appointed as a faculty adviser to the club. He arranged the schedules and helped the boys during and after school. Perhaps the biggest project of the club was the instruction of the interested members of the Eighth Grade Class in the operation of the Audio-Visual Equipment. Harvey Henson was in charge of this project and he was appointed to succeed Jimmy McCulloch as Chairman of the Audio-Visual Committee of the Student Council. Other projects were: furnishing music for dances, running the auditorium sound system, and playing music from the tower at Christmas.

New members taken into the stage crew this year were Virginia Kime, Le Dare Hurst, Peggy Mitchener, Billy Russ, Betsy Swain, Clyde Robinson, Verne Caviness, Jimmy Higgins, Helen Maynard, and Jesse Chappell.

Certain members of the organization are assigned to be back stage for all assembly programs and class meetings. The stage crew is headed by the co-chairmen of the stage committee of the student council, John Stevenson and Jean Norton.

This year the Broughton Senior Y-Teens was under the guidance of Miss Jane Suggs, club adviser.

One of the first projects the Y-Teens undertook was that of sending chocolates to Europe for Christmas. Keeping the girls' lounge in clean condition at all times was the project carried on throughout the whole year. In January the Y-Teen Club collected blankets to be used by the Salvation Army.

The State Y-Teen conference was held in Charlotte February 2-4. Martha Snow, delegate from the Broughton Senior Club and Joanne Curry, State Y-Teen secretary represented the Senior Club from Needham Broughton.

Little Theater

With a change in the schedule of courses, a change came to the Broughton Dramatics Department. Dramatics was classified as an interest subject, and everyone who took the course was eligible to become a member of the Little Theater. The slate of officers was difficult this year since each class had its own officers. The presidents of the seven classes served as vice-presidents of the whole Little Theater.

Under the direction of Miss Doris Sparks, the Little Theater presented numerous plays. The major production of the year was a three-act play, "The Baby-Sitter."

Composed of 150 freshmen, sophomore, junior, and senior members. The Little Theater met three times a month. These meetings consisted of one dinner meeting, one program meeting, and one business. The programs consisted of one-act plays and study courses in make-up, lighting, and sound effects.

The Golden Masquers, Broughton's Dramatic Honor Society, entered its annual production in the Spring Play Festival in Chapel Hill.

The Golden Masquers, Broughton's honorary dramatic club, is organized for the purpose of recognizing students who have done outstanding work in the various fields of dramatics. To be eligible for membership a junior must have thirty points and a senior twenty. Then points are awarded on the basis of participation in acting, costuming, and other phases of play production. Once a student is eligible he must be then voted into the club.

This fall Jean Norton, Ann Croom, Evelyn Spencer, Jackie Steed, Ken Hines, and Bill Lee were elected into the club. Their initiation took place at a Golden Masquers-Little Theater dinner meeting.

The Golden Masquers has held its meeting with the Little Theater this year in order that both organizations might benefit from the programs held. Some of the programs included Joe Reeves, A. J. Fletcher and Sam Beard as speaker.

The main project of the Masquers this year was to sponsor the trip to the Carolina Dramatics Festival in Chapel Hill on April 2-5. Over one hundred Broughton Dramatic students attended this festival. At the festival the Masquers presented the one act drama by Jewell Bothwell Tull, Dead Men Can't Hurt You. The cast included Martha Cope, Lee Garner, Shirley Habel, Bob Macdonald, and Bill Lee.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association, an after-school club, was organized to promote girls' participation in sports. Any girl in the tenth, eleventh, or twelfth grade who was interested was invited to join. After Miss Jane Suggs instructed them, the girls engaged in volleyball, basketball, softball, touch football, tennis, badminton, ping pong, shuffle board, bowling, tumbling, and speed ball. Tournaments were held in the majority of these sports.

The officers of the organization are, "Jo" Duncan, president; Nannette Starling, vice-president; Marion Lois Prescott, secretary; Kathleen Matthews, treasurer; Bess Peeler, press reporter; and Linda and Charlotte Clement, Hiking leaders. There are approximately fifty members who are divided into four teams. Marilyn Bridgers, Jo Ane Powell, Shirley Caviness, and Pat La Rue are the team captains. These teams compete with one another throughout the year in various sports.

In addition to the activities carried on during the meetings, the club has other functions. On Saturdays, hikes are taken. Some of these were the hikes to the Neuse River, Lake Johnson, the Dairy Queen, and Cary, which is the longest and most interesting hike of the year. The G.A.A. basketball team participated in several games in the city. The highlight of the year was the Student-Faculty basketball game which was played late in January. Active participation was encouraged in all sports. Skating, horseback riding, bicycle riding, tennis, bowling, and many other sports were carried on as personal amusements and still the members were awarded points toward a letter. At the end of the school year letters were awarded to the ten girls having the largest number of points over two hundred. The second and third years pins and letters with two stars were awarded to those who earned them. These points were earned by participating in organized and individual sports.

The purposes of the Girls' Monogram Club are to create more interest in girls' athletics, to work for the betterment of the school, and to act as a steering board for the planning of school activities.

This club had four projects for this year: to help with the girls' intramural program, to assist the physical education department with physical examinations, to be in charge of issuing the gym equipment during lunch periods, and to keep the girls' lounge in order during home basketball games.

The Monogram Club again had a successful year.

One of the first projects which the club undertook was their annual dance. This was the first social of the year and one of the most successful. The next project of the year was the drive to help needy families at Christmas time. A movie was held in the auditorium and the admission fee was a can of food. The club with the cooperation of the Student body took care of over twenty families as compared with seventeen last year. The club made a name for itself with this project.

The Monogram Club undertook many other projects during the year, such as keeping the people from breaking in line in the cafeteria.

Mr. Ringgold was adviser of the Club again this year. He deserves a great deal of the credit for making the Monogram Club one of the better clubs in the school.

Football

The Raleigh High Caps tackled a twelve game schedule that was probably the hardest in the history of the school. Under head coach Carroll King the Caps met the Virginia State Champs, Portsmouth High, and the number three team of Kentucky, Manual High of Louisville, and Charlotte and Greensboro, Western Conference stalwarts. The usual Eastern Conference foes were also met. The Caps coaching staff was completed when Chris Shay of Carolina and Watson Hollyfield of Appalachian joined forces to help in the scouting and Junior Varsity work, along with assistant coach Jimmy Ringgold.

In Charlotte's beautiful Memorial Stadium before eleven thousand spectators, Raleigh launched its 1950-1951 football season against Charlotte Central High School. Larry Parker took things into his own hands and scored four times for Charlotte. The first score came on a play that covered 76 yards on a pass from Frantz to Parker. Minutes later Parker scored again on a pass from Frantz again. Parker then ran for 18 and 64 yards to score two more touchdowns. Then Raleigh came back with a pass play from Johnny Jernigan to Bob Jenkins, good for 12 yards and a touchdown. This left the half time score at 21 to 6, Central of Charlotte leading. Raleigh came fighting back in the third quarter to score again on another pass play. Lennox Johnson took a pitch out from Bobby Lassiter and tossed to Pierce on Central's twenty. Pierce carried to the seven and scored on the next play. Murray Williams kicked the extra point. But Central scored on a pass from Jim Babb to George Robinson, and Bob Hatley kicked the extra point. In the fourth quarter Lennox Johnson passed to Tom Newton, who ran into the end zone for Raleigh's third touchdown. Central bounced right back to score Parker on a pitch-out from Babb. Final score, Central 41, Raleigh 19.

The Greensboro Whirlies came to Raleigh for the Caps next encounter. A crowd of four thousand watched Tiny Burtner score three times and kick four points. Morris, Leary, Murray, Chamblee and Casey also scored for Greensboro. The highlight of the game came when Lennox Johnson went 42 yards on a kickoff return only to be pulled down from behind after breaking through the big Whirlie line. Raleigh's lone score came with three minutes and ten seconds remaining in the game, when Lennox Johnson passed to Graham Bostic on the Whirlie nine, the big flanker stepped over for the touchdown. The play was good for 12 yards and came after Bobby Ussery had recovered a Greensboro fumble. End Murray Williams suffered a broken collarbone during the first half of the game and was lost for the season. Williams, Ussery, Gargis, and Newton led for Raleigh. The final score was Greensboro 52, Raleigh 7.

The Caps journeyed to Durham for its next encounter. Luck again failed to look toward Raleigh as the Bulldogs got three tallies in the first quarter, added one in the second, got two touchdowns and a safety in the third, and a single six pointer in the fourth. Jerry Hartzog saved the day for the winless Caps as he pitched to Luther Pierce who scampered over for the Raleigh's lone score. Durham 47, Raleigh 7 was the outcome. Showing the way for Raleigh was Pierce, Hartzog and Ussery. Worth Lutz, Albert Long, and Bill McDaniels handled the chores for Durham.

The Caps ventured to Wilson to see if the win column might be attained at the expense of the Wilson Cyclones. Three thousand fans stood in awe as little Paul Gay scored four touchdowns in helping Wilson to a 26-6 win over Raleigh. Raleigh scored first but Wilson came back with four touchdowns. Stalwarts for the Raleigh cause were Gargis and Pierce.

Two thousand wet but happy onlookers sat in Riddick Stadium and saw Bob Williamson pull in a pass for Bob Lassiter and score standing up for the only touchdown of the night against Charlotte Tech. The touchdown was the game's only serious scoring threat although Charlotte Tech moved to Raleigh's fourteen with less than four minutes left in the game. At this point the Caps stiffened; and after three plays, Tech relied on a long pass on the fourth down, but it failed. Tech was unable to engineer another serious drive all evening as the Cap forwards turned in the best game in five starts. Newton, Austin, Williamson, Mathews, and Gargis were standouts in the front wall, while Johnny Jernigan and Woody Warrick led in the backfield. Raleigh 6, Tech. of Charlotte 0.

Some three thousand fans saw Raleigh take its fourth defeat of the 1950 season, but they saw a much improved Cap eleven play one of its best games of the season. The visitors from Virginia scored their first touchdown after four minutes and twenty seconds of the first quarter when a sixty-two yard pass, Charles Sidwell to Robert Schwalenberg, was good for the score. Bobby McCarter, Wilson High's quarterback, kicked their first of four placements. Raleigh matched Portsmouth's touchdown with one in the second period as Luther Pierce scored on a short line buck from the one yard line. This climaxed 58 yard drive sparked by a 47 yard run also by Pierce. Bob Williamson missed the extra point but Raleigh was still in the ball game. Portsmouth took the kick-off and marched to the Raleigh goal on 12 and 13 yard runs by Bob McCotter and Robert Griesback, respectively. Raleigh scored first in the third period as Bob Lassiter went over from the one. Portsmouth scored next on a 56 yard run by Roy Hendricks. Portsmouth's final score came when Harry Tidwell went around end for six yards and the final tally. James Turner and Robert Griesback were tops for the Portsmouth's eleven. Jimmy Lassiter, J. C. Thomas, Bobby Ussery and Don Gargis led the Raleigh line play. Final score Portsmouth 28, Raleigh 12.

Goldsboro came to Raleigh with fire in its eyes, because of last year's heart-breaking tie which came when Goldsboro was leading the Conference. It was Billy Bell who had the major hand in handing Raleigh its sixth defeat in seven tries. Bell passed to Watson for the first score. Next was Bobby Frederick who bulled his way through the Caps for the second touchdown. After Frederick, Bell, Watson, and Pierce had finished there duties, Raleigh ended up on the short end of a 27-0 score.

The Burlington Bulldogs had their hands full as the Raleigh Caps passed and ran only to end up in the losing column after a very impressive start. Bobby Lassiter and Lennox Johnson kept the Bulldogs jittery throughout the game with their passes. Completed were six of thirteen for one hundred and forty-four yards. Half back Luther Pierce stood out both as a runner and as a pass receiver. Raleigh took the ball the first time it got it and moved to score on Lennox Johnson's pass to Tom Newton. Raleigh also scored again in the fourth period as Pierce went over the center for the touchdown. Brincifield came back for Burlington to build the score to 21-13. It was one of Raleigh's good nights; with a break or two, Raleigh could have been on the right end of the score.

The Raleigh High-Manual High Football game marked the first time that the Caps had taken to the air to travel to a game. The Caps flew to Louisville, Kentucky. The trip was enjoyed by all, and the seniors will always be able to look back on the trip with pleasant memories. Raleigh scored first on a 56 yard march to Manual paydirt. Manual came back to score on power plays by Schmidt, who ran well all night. Manual was able to score consistently because of Raleigh's fumbles and passes being intercepted. Final score Manual 38, Raleigh 6.

The Caps put on a brilliant first half display to hold the Fayetteville Bulldogs to a 7-6 score. But the second half was completely dominated by Fayetteville as Ted Harris and Paul McArther scored touchdowns for Fayetteville. Luther Pierce scored Raleigh's lone touchdown on a pass from Jerry Hartzog. Joe Smith, Bob Strickland and Ted Harris looked good for Fayetteville as Don Gargis and Junk Ussery carried the spark for Raleigh. Final score Fayetteville 34, Raleigh 6.

There was excitement in State's Riddick Stadium as the Raleigh Caps fought for all they were worth to down the Rocky Mount Blackbirds on a wet homecoming day. In the first half Bobby Britt passed to Frank Livesay for Rocky Mount's first score. After an exchange of the ball following the kickoff, on the Rocky Mount 25 Dan Herring fumbled and Jimmy Lassiter of Raleigh recovered on the Blackbird six yard line. Luther Pierce went the remaining distance and Bob Williamson's extra point was wide. Score was Rocky Mount 6, Raleigh 6 at the end of the first quarter. In the second quarter it was Rocky Mount with the Birds getting their second score on a thirty-two yard run by Bill Grey with McCotter adding the extra point. The score at the end of the first half was Rocky Mount 13, Raleigh 6. Trailing as they came onto the wet field to start the second half, the onlookers saw Chris Coley get loose for seventy yards in the third quarter to come within one point of the Blackbirds. In the fourth period, Junk Ussery went back to punt but lobbed a beautiful trick pass to Luther Pierce who took it and set sail for 42 yards and a touchdown which put the Caps out in front to stay. To make it even better Don Gargis stepped up and kicked a beautiful placement. From end to end the Raleigh line outcharged, out tackled and out scraped the Rocky Mount line. The Cap forward wall made life miserable for the Blackbirds all night. Luther Pierce and Chris Coley bore the brunt of the Raleigh offense with Bob Lassiter and Jerry Hartzog handling the quarterback job in fine style. Woodie Warrick, Lennox Johnson and Charlie Stokes also did yeoman duty in the backfield. The final score Raleigh 19, Rocky Mount 13. Two years in a row the Caps have downed the Blackbirds of Rocky Mount.

Seven thousand fans sat in Legion Stadium and watched the Raleigh Caps and the Wilmington Wildcats fight the last game of the season for both teams. Charlie Niven scored four times for the Cats while teammates Jerry Hilburn, Bob Outlaw and Julian Rogers were getting one each. Bob Lassiter got Raleigh's touchdown on a quarter-back sneak. Final score Wilmington 46, Raleigh 6.

Graduation will take seniors Murray Williams, Bob Williamson, Robert Hunnicutt, Gene Austin, Don Gargis, Skipper McMillan, Bob Boyles, Edgar Johnson, Ed Matthews, Jim Lassiter, Ted Brown, Woody Warrick, John Jernigan, Luther Pierce and Warren Mann, but we are looking forward to next year and hoping the boys from Raleigh will produce a championship team. Thus "old man football" ended for this year 1950.

The 1951 edition of the Raleigh High School Caps tackled a 21 game schedule, the longest in the history of the combined school team. The Caps walked away with 14 victories against seven setbacks, finishing the season second in the State.

The Caps amassed a total of 1,270 points during the season, for a 52 point-per-game average. The Capitals hit their highest total of 84 points against Goldsboro, while the seasons low was 35 against "Eliz" City. Sonny Thornton was the point leader this season bucketing a total of 212 points, followed by Bobby Colvin with 211. Jimmy Peebles was third high with 208. While bagging their share of the points, the Capital City Five limited the opposition to 1,032 points for a 43 point-per-game average.

Coach Carroll King's first year as head coach, was aided by the able scouting of assistant coach Watson Holyfield. Out of the season Coach King and Holyfield had the enjoyment of seeing their team enter the State Tournament an underdog, and coming out second with only Wilmington ahead.

The State Tournament in Durham turned out many stars: among them the Caps own Jimmy Peebles. Peebles was selected along with Bob Williamson for all Eastern Honorable Mention. Due to their fine playing the Caps earned runner-up honors in the State Class Triple A.

The Caps will lose six seniors to graduation. Bob Williamson, Jimmy Peebles, Bobby Colvin, Sonny Thornton, Johnny Kelly, and Murray Williams, but returning we have Carl Hayes, Lennox Johnson, Eddie Johnson, Malvin Glover, Jack Cell, Roy Poole, Bobby Ussery, J. C. Thomas and T. C. Moore.

COACH HOLYFIELD

Scruggs led Fayetteville with nine points.

RALEIGH- GREENSBORO

The game was very close all through the regulation periods with the score tied at 26 all at halftime. Colvin and Kelly led Raleigh with 19 and 10 apiece. Williamson held Greensboro ace, Bill Cambell, to a meager three points.

RALEIGH- ROCKY MOUNT

60-47. Reserve Carl Hayes led Raleigh with eleven while Ray Vincolli led Fayetteville with 18.

RALEIGH-WILSON

The game was held in the Reynolds Coliseum and the locals put on a fine display of ball. Bob Williamson led Raleigh with 13 points and Jimmy Peebles was outstanding on defense. Big Ben Futrell led the Black Birds with eleven.

RALEIGH-DURHAM

Raleigh lost its second conference game of the year to Durham by a score of 61-47. The Caps also suffered a double loss as they lost the services of Williamson with a dislocated shoulder. #### RALEIGH-WILMINGTON

Raleigh lost its second in a row to the powerful Wilmington Wildcats. The score was 70-48. Charlie Niven led Wilmington with 24 points while Colvin and Peebles were best for Raleigh.

RALEIGH-GOLDSBORO

Raleigh once again jumped back into the win column by slaughtering Goldsboro 84-52. The Cap had a great night and Goldsboro was simply no match for the revenge seeking Capitals.

STATE TOURNAMENT

Raleigh drew as its opening opponent in the State Tournament the Black Bison of High Point coached by diminutive Tony Simeon. High Point was dropped from the three day classic by the Caps to the tune of 69-37. Peebles had a great day and led the locals with 21 points. Raleigh's 69 points tied the state tournament record of points scored in one game.

The Caps drew as its semi-final opponent the strong Whirlies of Greensboro. Greensboro was the heavy favorite but Raleigh fought hard all the way and won 50-49. It was by far the best game of the tournament.

Thornton led Raleigh's scoring with 14 and Peebles had 11. Williamson held Greensboro's Cambell to six points which was far below his 22 points a game average. The game was played before 3,000 screaming fans in Duke's Indoor Stadium.

Raleigh met Wilmington the following night for the state-championship and lost 65-50. Raleigh had a poor night and time and time again missed easy shots.

Thus Raleigh ended its fine year and ended up as state class AAA runners. The coaches and players are to be commended for their fine work.

The Raleigh High School Swimming Team had the most successful season of any of the local athletic teams. The tankers had only one loss to their credit and that was to the Carolina Freshman.

The swimmers took to Frank Thompson Pool about the last of November to begin workouts. The first meet entered was an invitational meet held at State College for College freshman and high school swimmers. Two of the Raleigh boys were outstanding. Billy Churn won the 200 yard freestyle and got a second in the 50, while Tom Dunlap won the 100 yard backstroke.

With record breaking performances by Billy Churn in the 100 freestyle and by the 200 freestyle relay (Pat Eldridge, Herb Ridgeway, Graham Anderson, and Billy Churn), the Raleigh tankers swept the Southeastern and the Southern Interscholastic Championships held at Atlanta, Georgia and Chapel Hill, North Carolina respectively. The State Championship was retained by the Raleigh squad for the third straight year. Billy Churn, Tommy Dunlap, Larry Tippet, Graham Anderson, and Billy Staton won individual titles for themselves; while the 200 yard freestyle relay composed of Pat Eldridge, Herb Ridgeway, George Pressley, and Graham Anderson won their event.

In their final meet, the Duke Invitational Swimming Meet, the Tankers again won. Churn, Dunlap, Anderson, Eldridge, Eubanks, Ridgeway, Tippet, Cooper, Veazy, Pressly, and Staton were all impressive.

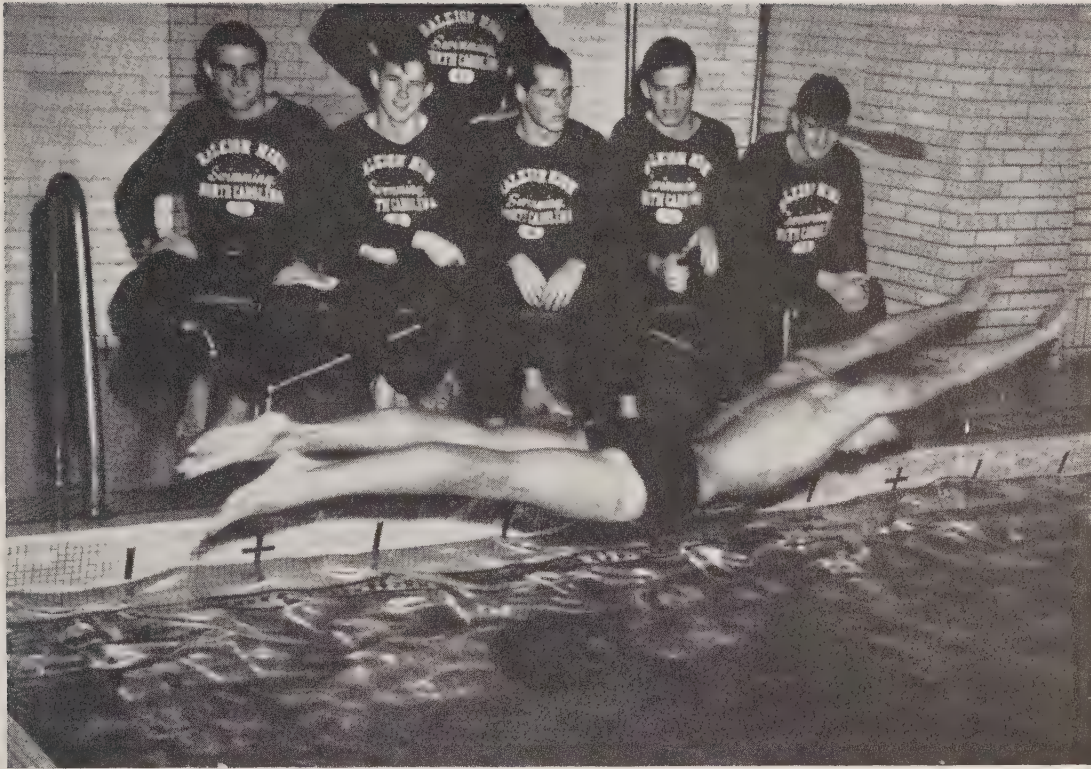

Seniors who are leaving are Tommy Dunlap, Billy Churn, and Graham Anderson; three of the best swimmers ever to come out of this state. Others who are leaving are: Larry Tippet, Herb Ridgeway, George Pressly, Hart Gates, and Wade Cooper.

With Pat Eldridge, Billy Staton, and Lynwood Eubanks returning next year, the tank squad will be very strong again next year.

The scores for the meets were as follows:

Raleigh	54—Granby	21
Raleigh	56—Greensboro	19
Raleigh	30—Carolina Fresh.	45
Raleigh	52—Granbey	23
Raleigh	51—Greensboro	24

The four major sports which the girls participate in this year are volleyball, soccer, basketball, and softball. The year was started with the playing of volleyball. After studying the rules, they put them into practice by taking part in volleyball tournaments which were held among the gym classes as well as among the G. A. A. teams.

Next came the vigorous sport, soccer. Teams were organized with the gym classes and animated contests were held among these groups.

With the coming of spring, our interests were centered around softball. The G. A. A. chose a varsity softball team which was composed of twenty girls who proved that they were the most outstanding in that sport.

The year was terminated with the invigorating sport of tennis. After practicing the fundamental rules of this sport, matches were held within the girls' classes.

The minor sports in which the girls participated were touch football, bowling, and tumbling. All the girls enjoyed playing touch football which was in the physical education program this year for the first time.

During the months of December and January, the girls were fortunate in being able to bowl at Brook's Recreation Center during their physical education periods. The classes kept records of the bowlers with the highest scores.

Tumbling was one of the most interesting features of the year. The physical education department was equipped with new mats which were used by the girls' gym classes as well as the G. A. A. During several meetings of the G. A. A., different figures and stunts were accomplished among the members.

The Senior Story

It was the fifth September that we had walked up the long walks to Broughton. To some it was merely the end of another summer; the conclusion of a hot season of beaches, work, swimming, rest, and fun; to some it was return to dreaded work. To us it was the first day of our last year at Broughton.

On that first day we found ourselves in homerooms with these teachers: Mary Barber Boyette, Sophie Clayton, Fannie Fulcher, Laura Helen Paschal, Celeste Penny, and Helen Runnion. The first week was bewildering. We were uncomfortable in our new and sanctified position. We were introduced to a Mr. John G. Gilmartin; some made the acquaintance of a book called Word Clues. And we struggled to adapt ourselves to the new "interest-core" subject system, roaming the halls frustratedly like so many green freshmen. We found ourselves back in gym classes for the first time in three years. Of course we complained! It was preposterous that seniors should be required to exercise twice each week! We were lost that whole week, until Friday when we became seniors. The bell rang. We returned to our homerooms. All the practicing that we had done was forgotten, and we were scared—all of us—from Binky Perry and Ann Marie Trent, who led the two lines to Ed Matthews and George Pressly, who towered at the end — were terrified. We stumbled coldly down the three stories and stopped at the auditorium doors. The marshals stood there ready; the solemn music began; there was no escape—we were seniors.

Elections filled the next weeks—cheerleaders, class officers, Council representatives, homeroom executives. The seniors were faced with the choice of five people to guide their last year. We elected Bob Williamson, on nominations, as president, Holt Fleming was named vice-president; Ann Stephenson, secretary; Mary Ann Powell, treasurer; and Billy Churn, sergeant-at-arms.

The football team was growing to be a real topic of discussion. The team was not achieving spectacular success, and some talk was heard of our "poor team," our "pitiful squad." But as the season progressed, we grew to admire and respect the courage and endurance of our team.

On October 6 we watched respectfully and lauded in the National Honor Society's fall ceremony. Those honored for high standards of character, scholarship, leadership, and service were Ann Stephenson, Jeannette Weaver, Jean Norton, Sara Lawrence, and George Pressly.

With the first issue of the Hi-Times on October 6, it was evident that the student publication was taking on a new aspect. A clear editorial policy was announced and consistently maintained; content and pictorial quality were stressed by the staff.

We held our first class meeting on October 5 and discussed plans for the 1951 LATIPAC. The following week, we elected Jo Duncan as LATIPAC editor; Holt Fleming, business manager; and Peggy Smith, advertising manager. Jo immediately began forming the staff, and the '51 LATIPAC was underway.

In mid-October the Kiwanis club sponsored Raleigh Government Day. Those chosen to represent Broughton on the student city Council were Bob Williamson, who served as mayor, Skipper MacMillan, and Jackie Steed.

It was State Fair time, and we filled our annual Fair holiday with the garish lights, shows, the feverish rides, the food, the "Pandas," and tired feet.

In November clubs began to reorganize. The language groups, the government clubs, and the highly coveted Service Club. The Service Club, organized in the previous year, to honor students who have rendered outstanding service to the school recognized eight seniors in the first assembly of the year. Those seniors were Karl Barkley, Jo Duncan, Donald Gargis, Edgar Johnson, Jean Norton, George Pressly, Reynolds Price, and John Stephenson.

November brought Homecoming, and we began to plan for the big week-end with enthusiasm. Sponsors were chosen — Anne Croom sponsored the seniors—, plans for the parade and dance, and for the game on November 10. A heavy rain fell but did not seriously dampen "Homecoming spirits."

Thanksgiving was upon us. Dr. Howard Powell of Edenton Street Methodist Church

spoke to us on the Thanksgiving theme, "One out of ten," and then we joyously took advantage of our two day holiday to eat, rest, visit friends, and not study.

December was the month for many things and the first of these was the senior play "Miss Jimmy." A large cast of seniors, headed by Elizabeth Lynn and Ken Hines, presented the three act comedy to thoroughly amused audiences on two nights.

The month whirled on with the Kiwanis Minstrel at Morson in which a number of Broughton girls took part, the Councils tea for new students, the Monogram Club dance, report cards, glee club rehearsals and everything was waiting for Christmas. The Student Council sponsored its annual Christmas dance. The Glee Club presented its magnificently impressive Christmas concert on a stage decorated by the art department. The Yule Hi-Times was issued in green. The Monogram Club continued its annual Christmas project of feeding needy families. The students through contributions of money and goods, fed and clothed twenty-eight families for the holiday season. And Christmas came and the holidays were filled with dances, parties, gifts, a phantasma of lights and tinsel; but some of us felt a little different, a little strange—more reverent than usually—why? We were just getting older.

We returned to school on January 2 with midterm examinations looming in the all-too-near and black future. The remainder of the month was spent in heated cramming, that last minute reviewing, and then the exams began. Of course they were nothing like as we pretended. It was almost disgusting to study for weeks on an exam and then find it so simple. In January we were fitted for our caps and gowns; and the entire school joined in contributing $422.73 to the March of Dimes. We laughed hilariously at the sometimes-skilled, most-often-frantic efforts of the two faculty teams in the student-faculty game.

The Student Council issued a new Broughton handbook, dedicated to the three teachers who have taught here since the founding of the school.

During February's first week the Little Theater presented its play, "The Baby Sitter" to large audiences on two nights.

The Honor Society repeated its colorful rites in the tapping of three seniors and four juniors on February 11. The honored seniors were all girls — Mary Forrest, Elizabeth Lynn, and Bess Peeler.

With February comes St. Valentine's Day and with that time-honored occasion, the choosing of one girl to reign as Queen of our hearts. That girl was Anne Croom. And in a darkened auditorium on February 17 Queen Anne glided down the long, spot-lit aisle, attended by her maid of Honor, Jackie Steed. It was a beautiful ceremony. The girls cried; the boys admired. On Saturday night, the seniors honored the Queen and her court at the annual Valentine's dance. It was a wonderfully colorful night, and it concluded an even more wonderful week.

We broke the state's high school attendance record by packing 4,000 strong to watch a brilliant Cap basketball team trounce Rocky Mount, 47-35. The game was sponsored by the Raleigh High Alumni Association to arouse community and school interest.

In February came one of the big elections of any senior year—the choosing of superlatives. The office announced the scholarship leaders, and it was up to us to select those other ten people who had proven unquestionably superlative.

With the approach of March some thirty-five seniors began mad preparations for the "New York Trip." There was so much to do—work had to be taken care of in advance, bags had to be packed. Then on March 6 we left. Not one of those thirty-five will ever forget one minute of the five-day trip—the seemingly endless ride during which no one slept (except the chaperones), the arrival in Penn Station, and the following days filled with plays, sightseeing, operas, a trip to the United Nations, television shows, the Radio City Easter Pageant, the garishness, the cheapness, and the wonderful variety of New York.

Our basketball team concluded its season with honors, winning the runner-up trophy in the State AAA Conference Tournament in Durham. The boys had carved for themselves a fine record for a long season.

The Service club amended its constitution and received two seniors during its spring program. The honored two were Peggy Smith and Virginia Kime.

March was a month of tense excitement for five seniors. Kit Crittenden, Eric Potter, George Pressly, Reynolds Price, and Ann Stephenson had reached the final competition for the Angier B. Duke Scholarship, and the five travelled to Duke for a week-end of testing and interviewing. Officials of the University announced on March 19 that Reynolds was the winner of the $3,000 scholarship from his district. With the award, Reynolds became the fourth Broughton student to capture the coveted prize.

It was a little hard to believe that the juniors were actually doing all that work to honor us at a Junior-Senior Prom. It was no time since we had finished entertaining the class of '50 in a gym filled with moonlight and roses. But it was true; we were the seniors now. We were the ones to stand by while the juniors worked. And they worked to great success to give us an unforgettable dance. In a gym miraculously converted into a Mississippi Showboat replete with docks, waterwheels, cotton bales, and a star-lit sky, we danced for three hours. And then it was over.

In April most of us began to realize fully what was happening. There were two months until graduation, and there was too much to do. We met and voted to landscape the immense front lawn of the school as our gift. We began individual conferences with the administration. We attended College Night, and many of us were beginning to receive the awaited letters of acceptance from Duke or State or Carolina or W. C. or . . .

The Student Council Elections were held. The seniors took part in them seriously, realizing that it was their duty to leave the school in safe hands.

April 27 brought the annual Hi-Y Minstrel, "Spring Follies." This year a new innovation was made, and the boys presented a new opening variety act, followed by the traditional end-men and chorus act.

In a beautiful Valentine setting, Anne Croom was crowned Queen of Hearts for 1951 by senior class President Bob Williamson in a chapel program on February 16. Queen Anne was chosen from the senior class by popular vote of the entire student body; runner-up Jackie Steed was Maid-of-Honor. The eighth grade selected one attendant for the queen's court who was Faye Arnold; the two attendants from the ninth grade were Betty Gray and Joy Lambert;

Pat Yelvington and Julianne Boone were selected by the tenth grade; Junior class attendants were Barbara Kinney and Joyce Ellen; and the senior class elected three attendants who were Martha Snow, Margaret Williams and Jean McConnell.

Queen Anne reigned at a Valentine Dance sponsored by the senior class in the gymnasium on February 17, when she and her court were again formally presented and entertained with a Valentine program.

A local track star was boasting of his achievements when a man interrupted him and said, "I'll race you, and you'll never pass me if you give me a three foot start and let me choose the course."

The star looked at the heavy man and said, "Bet you 50 to 1 I will beat you. Where is the course?"

"Up a ladder," the man replied.

Doctor's message on overdue bills: "Long time no fee."

Since the end of the second World War, when materials again became available, Carolina Power & Light Company has been engaged in the greatest building and expansion program in its history. In fact, in the last five years Carolina Power & Light Company has built more than 6,000 miles of rural lines and has connected more than 45,000 farm and rural customers that did not previously have electric service. The building program is continuing, and under present plans, a hundred million dollars will be invested in increasing and improving electric service in the area served by the Company.
